

Bianca Chatfield

Media Presenter

Leadership Mentor

The Block 2018

Former Australian Netballer

After taking the sporting world by storm, Gold medal-winning netballer Bianca Chatfield's journey from professional athlete to media personality and leadership speaker is indicative of her vivacious nature, dedication and professionalism across all fields.

Following her debut as an 18-year-old for the Australian Diamonds netball team, Bianca quickly established a name for herself as one of the fiercest defenders and empowering leaders. During her time on the netball court, Bianca endured some tough times but also enjoyed great success; winning both gold and silver medals at the Commonwealth Games, a World Championship, alongside a host of premierships with the Melbourne Vixens.

A celebrated athlete and excellent communicator, and qualified teacher, Since her retirement from the sport in 2015, you may have seen Bianca on Reality TV as a contestant on Ch 9's The Block, renovating The Gatwick in 2018.

Bianca currently focuses her time in Media and Leadership space. Talking about the power of being an optimist, channelling a performance mindset and exploring ways to get the best out of yourself. In 2016 Bianca co-wrote her first book, Every girl needs a plan, currently runs her own Netball academy through Victoria University and has created an online mentoring program for women and girls.

In the Media, Bianca is a presenter across various platforms, including hosting Women's Footy (ch.9), House of Wellness (ch.7), Commentating the Super Netball (ch.9) and a regular panellist on Offsiders (ABC) as well as hosting a number of podcasts.

Bianca is a proud ambassador for Victoria University, Lexus of Berwick and Chemist Warehouse.